

Hospitality Recruitment Solutions

Human Resources Audit

Hospitality Recruitment Solutions can assess your current human resources framework and assist to improve your practices across recruitment & selection, employment relations and industrial relations disciplines.

- Do you find it difficult to recruit, select and retain the right people for your business?
- Do you know the reasons why people are leaving your business?
- Does your business comply with current legislative requirements?
- Are you paying your staff correctly?
- Do you regularly review the performance of your staff and provide feedback?
- Do you have clear and concise policies, procedures and position descriptions in place?

Improving HR practices within your business is important for legislative requirements, however can also reduce the cascading effects of staff turnover including loss of productivity and often a slip in team morale.

We have the experience and expertise in human resources within the hospitality industry including:

- Cafes
- Restaurants
- Hotels/Resorts
- Cellar Doors
- Tourism Experiences

We provide tailored audits to target specific areas and complete a detailed overview of our findings with recommendations for our client's implementation. We aim to increase business productivity through partnering with your business and fostering an ongoing consultative relationship.

Our services are conducted by human resources professionals who have a background in human resources management within the hospitality industry.

Please contact us for further information on how we can assist you to achieve greater business success.